

ALL CLUBS WILL TAKE HAND FOR PREVENTION DAY

Meeting Held in Board of Health
Office Results in Preliminary Plans for Big Parade to be a Feature.

With the assistance of Mayor Fred W. Keller, the women's clubs of the city, the Chamber of Commerce, and both the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., the city board of health is planning to make Oct. 2 one of the biggest days ever celebrated in South Bend. It will be known as disease preventive day, and will be featured with a monster parade which will be formed of school children, citizens and members of various municipal organizations.

While it is being planned to make the parade one of the main features of the event, at a meeting in the board of health office Wednesday afternoon, plans and arrangements for a day full of enjoyable features and attractions were considered.

Clubs Represented.
Dr. Chas. Bosenbury presided as chairman over a meeting which was made up of members of the Progress club, the Impromptu club, the Thursday club, and the Chamber of Commerce. There was also present a representative of a life insurance company which will take an important part in the events leading up to the actual celebration. The recent disease preventive day held in Anderson was discussed at length. It is being planned to bring a moving picture camera to the city to take pictures of the parade and the principal speakers of the day. This was successfully done at Anderson and the pictures were shown all over the country. Dr. Chas. Bosenbury having seen them in Atlantic City while on his vacation.

Mayor Keller suggested that the city give prizes for the public school that displays the greatest interest in planning for the day and the one which prepares the handsomest float for the parade. The district schools close to the city will be asked to declare a holiday to allow the children to take in the educational features.

Miss Veva Harrison, secretary of the local Anti-Tuberculosis league, speaking for its members, assured the board of health that the league was with the board in anything that might be taken up. She added that the tuberculosis hospital under construction would probably be opened on the same day. In that case the ceremony connected with the opening of the handsome new hospital will be made an important feature of the day's events.

Offer Cooperation.
Mrs. L. F. Pickenscher of the philanthropic department of the Progress club, and Mrs. Victor Jones, also of the Progress club, offered the services of their organization. Mrs. A. H. Rice, speaking for the Thursday club, stated that the members of that club were, as a whole, in favor of the proposition and would assist.

Secy. H. G. Spaulding of the Chamber of Commerce stated that the chamber would do anything in its power to make the day a success. He compared South Bend with other cities which have observed the day, and said that this city should outdo them all in point of splendor. It has natural resources, he said, for a thing of the kind and as it is always a healthy community, the interest should be of the keenest.

Mayor Keller expressed himself as being heartily in favor of the project.

Among those present at the Wednesday afternoon meeting were Dr. Chas. Bosenbury, L. J. Montgomery, superintendent of schools; Mrs. L. F. Pickenscher and Mrs. Victor Jones of the Progress club; Mrs. A. H. Rice of the Thursday club, and Mayor Fred W. Keller.

A meeting will be held shortly at which committees to be in charge of the making out the program and other activity connected with the preparation of the day's events.

THE AUDITORIUM.

At the Auditorium today are "The Song of the Ghetto," a two reel Vitagraph drama, Pathe Weekly of Current Events with ten or twelve interesting items, "The Arrival of Josie," Vitagraph comedy with Josie Sadler and Billy Quirk in the cast and "Across the Burning Trestle," dramatic adaptation of "In Christmas Canyon" by Francis Lynde.

Tom was an expert telegrapher when he married Doris. He had taught her how to send and receive so that she was almost as proficient as he. Six months after they were married Tom became very ill and the doctor ordered him to the mountains. To raise the money which was badly needed to restore Tom to health Doris began to look about for some means of livelihood. An advertisement in a newspaper, offering a position to an unmarried telegraph operator seemed to be the best chance so Doris presented herself at the office of the superintendent and when he asked her if she was married she answered in the negative.

She was engaged and assigned to a wild station in the mountains. Jake Mills the operator whom she relieved was very indignant and went away muttering threats. A few weeks later Tom was allowed to leave the sanitarium. He came to the station and Doris took him to the little home she had prepared in the woods. Jake Mills saw them together and started to make trouble. He came to the station and annoyed Doris with his attentions.

While there he saw a message saying the superintendent would be there that afternoon and being just in the mood for revenge he set fire to the track and flung the train just in time. The grateful superintendent readily forgave Doris for her deception, and appointed her husband and herself to a far more important position. Tomorrow two three reel specials will be shown "In Defense of the Law" and "Mongrel and Master."

AT THE SURPRISE.

Today's pictures at the Surprise theater will include a Winifred Greenwood reel called "Youth and Art." Wishing to have a portrait of his wife painted, Lord Golden employs Richard Fane. When Fane and Lady Golden meet they discover they have known each other since childhood. Golden, once a poor girl, had forgotten her old sweetheart when success on the stage brought many offers of marriage. Fane, torn by jealousy, won success in his chosen field. "All at Sea" is a comical social romance, taken at Coronado beach and then on shipboard and it is full of beautiful scenes. And it is said, because of the spirited acting, there will be a great deal of laughter. "The Mutual Weekly," No. 62, will be a feature today. Some of the subjects are as follows: The Nevada, Uncle Sam's new superdreadnought is launched at Quincy, Massachusetts; another monster ship takes to the water of Germany; the late Joseph Chamberlain, England's grand old statesman, on his last campaign; New York anarchists, killed in recent bomb explosion, are entombed in Union square; many beautiful floats complete for supremacy at the flower carnival held in Halle, Germany; annual water sports regatta at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; the fashionable Authors' league of Paris; entertaining many nobles with a dancing carnival; "water cycling," a new sport; dangerous fire ruins left standing after the recent conflagration at Salem, Mass., are being destroyed by dynamite. Tomorrow will bring "The Sob Sister," a new Rex drama, and "Our Mutual Girl," chapter No. 22.

Andreas Höfer—The Inn-keeper Patriot of Switzerland

TO THIS peasant-leader Liberty was as much the breath of life as it is to the strong-winged eagles of the Alps. To achieve it for himself and his mountain brothers he gladly laid down his life. No less a personality than Napoleon vanquished him, and it was because he feared him that the Great Emperor ordered Höfer shot. Every atom of Andreas Höfer loved Liberty. He demanded it for himself and willingly gave it to others. In this respect he is no different than are our millions of Swiss citizens. Personal and National Liberty to those of Swiss blood is a religion. To a man they will fight for it, and to a man they will die for it. When asked to vote for Prohibition they do as would do the great patriot Höfer—VOTE AGAINST IT. "Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that" is insolent legislation to those of Swiss blood. Anheuser-Busch are proud to serve their thousands of Swiss patrons. For 57 years the Swiss people have been moderate users of their honestly-brewed beers. BUDWEISER is a favorite wherever these folk are found. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to meet the constantly increasing demand for BUDWEISER. Its sales exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH • ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.

question prevented the organization of a branch of the Women's Franchise league of Indiana in South Bend. Miss Harriet Noble of Indianapolis, representing the state organization, talked to members of the Young Women's Suffrage club of this city, for the purpose of organizing a club that will take in the older women. The plan was thought to be inadvisable at this time. The present club does not include the older women, but it was thought to be able to handle the suffrage question here for the present.
